_____

_____

_____

6. How did the child express itself? (Photo 05)

It _____.

7. Alice says to the child: (Photo 06)

“I do believe your little nose is very turned up, more like a _____ than a real nose.”

8. Alice exclaims: (Photo 06)

SCENE 03

A very unusual tea party

Meet the guests and listen for the Hatter’s riddle.

Picture 07

Picture 09

9. Complete Alice’s comment. (Photo 08)

Hint: The subtitles incorrectly say “Door mouse.” Write one word, beginning with Dorm-.

“That must be very uncomfortable for the _____.”

10. Complete the Hatter’s riddle. (Photo 09)

“What’s the difference between a _____ and a _____ desk?”

SCENE 04

Say what you mean

Do the same words in a different order mean the same thing?

Picture 10

Picture 12

11. Alice believes that “I mean what I say” is the same as “I say what I mean.” The Hatter agrees. (Photo 10)

Hint: The Hatter is the man wearing the hat.

☐ 1. True ☐ 2. False

12. The Hatter objects, pointing out that: (Photo 11)

“I _____ what I eat” is not the same as “I _____ what I see.”

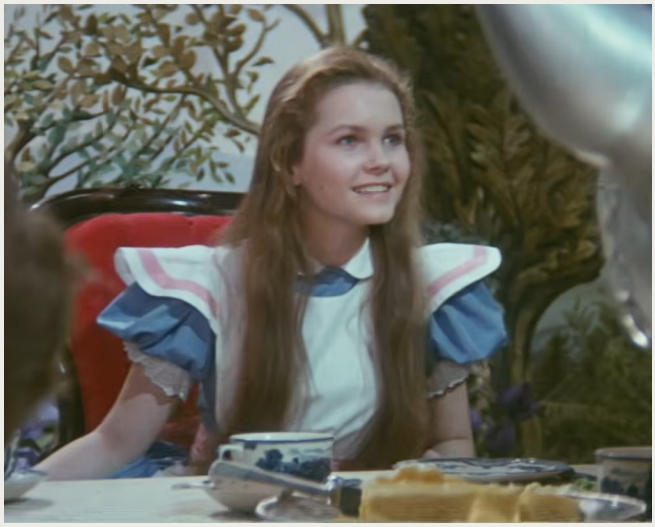

13. The Dormouse says: (Photo 12)

“You might just as well say that ‘I _____ when I sleep’ is the same thing as ‘I _____ when I breathe.’”

SCENE 05

An answer, and a time

Return to the riddle, then notice what has happened to time.

17. The March Hare jokes: (Photo 16)

“We don’t have any _____, but we do have some _____.”

18. “How do you find out the weight of a whale?” (Photo 17)

19. “Which king of England wore the largest shoe?” (Photo 18)

20. “What did the father ghost say to his son?” (Photo 19)

SCENE 07

The Dormouse’s story

Three sisters, an unusual diet, and a strange place to live.

21. Complete the sentence. (Photo 20)

Hint: A thick, sweet syrup. The word has seven letters and begins with trea-. The subtitles spell it incorrectly.

“The three sisters lived on _____.”

(Photo 20)

22. “Why did they live at the bottom of a well?” Alice asks. The Dormouse replies:

Hint: Use the same word as in the previous question: a thick, sweet syrup beginning with trea-.

“It was a _____ well.”

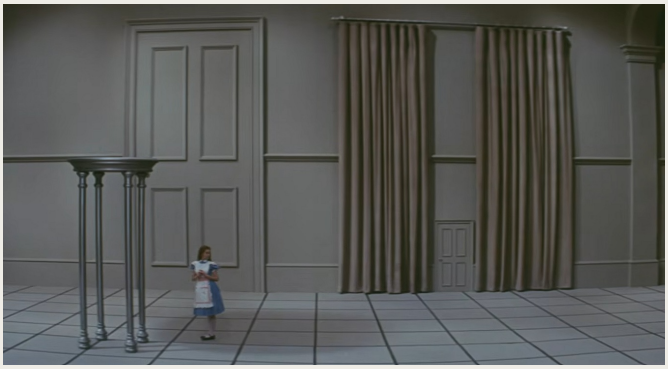

SCENE 08

A door, and a familiar hall

Leave the tea party and follow Alice to the end of this part.
